Help Shape the Future of Your Solano County Fair at the Community Listening Session with CEO Tom Keaney

VALLEJO, Calif. — The Solano County Fair Association invites community members to help shape the future of their Fair by attending a Community Listening Session with Chief Executive Officer Tom Keaney on Wednesday, July 29, at 6:00 p.m. in Gibson Hall *(The Winners' Circle) at the Solano County Fairgrounds.

The evening will provide an opportunity for residents, fair supporters, exhibitors, volunteers, community partners, and the public to connect directly with Fair leadership, share ideas, ask questions, and discuss the future of the Solano County Fair.

The meeting will begin with introductory remarks from CEO Tom Keaney, followed by an open session and public comment. The focus of the evening will be on hearing directly from the community about what they value most, what they'd like to see in the years ahead, and how the Fair can continue to grow as a cherished tradition for Solano County.

"Over the past several months, there has been significant community conversation surrounding the Fairgrounds," said Keaney. "As we move forward, I want to make sure we also focus on what brings us together—the Solano County Fair. This is your Fair, and I want to hear your ideas, your priorities, and your vision for its future. Together, we can continue building an event that reflects the pride, traditions, and aspirations of our community."

No formal presentation or action items are planned. Instead, the evening is intended to foster open dialogue and gather community feedback that will help inform future Fair programming, experiences, and community engagement.
